Thought for Today

If Jesus is who he says he is, and the Kingdom of God is really at hand, why is his message not always welcomed? Today's Gospel addresses this question with a parable about a farmer sowing seed in his field: some of the seed fails to germinate altogether; some comes up but soon withers; some is choked by weeds; and, finally, some of the seed lands in "good soil" and produces an abundant harvest. In the same way, Jesus suggests, some cannot receive his message at all, others welcome it enthusiastically but soon lose interest, and still others begin well but cannot persevere under pressure. Lastly, there is the one who "hears the word and understands it", that is, lives according to it – such people will "bear fruit", yielding an abundant harvest. The parable invites us to consider our own response to Jesus: are we open to hearing what he has to say to us? Will we not only hear but understand and act on his message? And how might we join with Jesus in his mission to spread the good news of the Kingdom?

The All Saints Mission Statement: Working together as a church we are pursuing a vision to put All Saints at the heart of the wider community. Our vision is to be a vibrant, inclusive, compassionate and outward looking church with a sensitive and thoughtful approach to faith, where there is excellent pastoral care and encouragement for all and where diversity is welcomed and our worship inspires us to transform the world.

A warm welcome to you if you are a newcomer. Please complete a green Contact Card and place it in the box provided, or hand it to one of the clergy or churchwardens.

Children and Young People: Children and young people are always welcome at our services. On the second Sunday of each month we hold an “All Together” service at 9:30 which is slightly less formal and includes greater involvement by the congregation. In addition on the last Sunday of each month there is a Faith @4 event in the All Saints Centre that includes craft and refreshments. At the back of church is an area that hosts activities that can be used when in Church.

Have you problems with mobility? Please let a steward know if you need assistance going up for communion, or would like communion to be brought to you.

Hard of hearing? If you use a hearing aid, please switch it to the ‘T’ position to use our loop system.

Thank you.

Diana Lavín

Our next classical concert in Church is on Wednesday 26th July at 7.30pm. Mark Viner – piano. £10 admission on the door, under-18s free. See poster at the end of the newsletter for more details.

The PCC at its meeting on Monday launched a number of groups around priority areas
These are:

Children and young people

Working with the Youth Forum to try and identify opportunities for welcoming young people in All Saints.

Communication

To consider a communication strategy for All Saints and coordinate and develop our current strands of communication so that we can present ourselves better to our community, in print and online. This will include looking at our current print and online communications, including social media, web, print newsletters and noticeboards, identifying weaknesses and gaps and thinking how we can improve what we do.

Fabric

Participating in the existing Fabric Committee to help with major repair projects (hopefully not too many after last year!), or space planning projects as the requirements for our buildings changes, eg to improve accessibility, increase revenue. Also to look at further planning for the green to make it more nature friendly and attractive.

Finance

To support the new treasurer as finances are reviewed, including the potential need to encourage new patterns of giving. If you feel able to help or are simply interested please do please contact Christine in the first instance.

Social and events

To help coordinate current activities and help develop new events. There is a need to coordinate existing volunteers and find new ones, so that help can readily be found for an event and activities can be shared more widely. We are not looking for experts, or expecting you to do all the work. Rather we are looking for people with an interest/ enthusiasm in these areas who will work with others, to help move All Saints forward.

Please be in touch with Churchwardens Nick and Christine for more information

All Saints Book Club 2.0 Thank you to all who attended our first meeting in June. After discussing various recommendations, we have decided on Claire Keegan's Small Things Like These as our next book. In 2022, the book won the Orwell Prize for Political Fiction, and was shortlisted for the Rathbones Folio Prize and the Booker Prize.

The summary reads: "It is 1985 in a small Irish town. During the weeks leading up to Christmas, Bill Furlong, a coal merchant and family man faces into his busiest season. Early one morning, while delivering an order to the local convent, Bill makes a discovery which forces him to confront both his past and the complicit silences of a town controlled by the church." It is only a short read, but comes highly recommended.

If you would like to join us to discuss this book, we are meeting on Thursday 27th July at 4pm in Cafe Nero on Gosforth High Street. All Welcome!

Our August book will be Lily by Rose Tremain. We will be meeting on Thursday 31st August at 4pm. Venue tbc but will be a coffee shop on the High Street.

Hope to see you there! Karoline Wellborne

From Saints to Saints: on Sunday 20th August City Guide Helen Langley will lead a walk from St Nicholas' church in South Gosforth to All Saints', providing us with lots of interesting information about the history of the area. The walk will start in the afternoon and take around two hours, finishing with refreshments at All Saints' Centre. More details coming shortly! Helen Langley & Ann cross

Keeping in Touch To submit an article of no more than 400-500 words please email: intouch@allsaints-gosforth.org.uk or pass to: Christine Willoughby, Dermot Killingley, Lesley Atkinson or Ann Cross.

Food donations are now being taken to Kenton Foodbank. Their most needed items currently are tinned soup, tinned tomatoes, tinned fruit, biscuits and long life milk. Thank you to everyone who continues to bring donations and leave them at the back of the church.

News from St Hugh's –

- Revd Dr Miriam Jones is leading worship today.

Upcoming Events

Prayer and Worship

Sunday: Services at 8.00am, 9.30am and 6.30pm

Monday - Thursday: 8.45am Morning Prayer in Church. Enter by the South Porch.

Tuesday's Holy Communion is at 10.15am in church

There is a special event today for young families at the vicarage from 2.30 – 5.00pm.

On Sunday July 23rd we will be featuring two movements from the "Missa Brevis Sancti Joannis de Deo" by Joseph Haydn in the morning Eucharist service. The choir, accompanied by a small chamber ensemble, will perform the Sanctus during the Eucharistic prayers and the Agnus Dei as a communion motet. This is somewhat of a musical experiment and it is my hope that these "larger" mass settings (there are many to choose from) will become a regular feature at All Saints. I'm hoping that these performances will provide an opportunity for the wider community to get involved; an ideal chance for instrumental students to broaden their musical horizons.

It would be lovely to have a full nave for this event, so please encourage your friends, family and neighbours to attend if possible. John Lewis

The Handlebards present a rip-roaring, bicycle-powered production of Shakespeare's A Midsummer Night's Dream. Wednesday 9th August 7.00 – 9.00pm. Tickets £19.50, under 18 £12.50, under 10 free (only one free ticket per paid ticket). Click on this link for tickets <https://www.handlebards.com/show/dream-all-saints-gosforth/>

All Saints – welcoming young people into the Church

As part of welcoming young people into Church, particularly during services we want to refresh the activities to be used by children during a service and need some help.

Could you make an activity bag?

Cloth bag with handles or draw string that could hold a range of activities

Suggested size: 450cm x 350cm

Do you have some good quality (quiet) activities that would be appropriate for a young child to do during a service that would fit into the bags?

Please leave any donations in the children's play area at the back of Church.

We will be blessing the bags as part of our Harvest Festival service on

1st October 2023

A MIDSUMMER NIGHT'S DREAM

'I know a bank where the wild thyme blows.....' –

Could it be All Saints' Green?

Shakespeare – but maybe not as you know it....?

A Midsummer Night's Dream performed by the comedy troupe Handlebards

7-9pm Wed 9th August on All Saints' Church Green

Christine Willoughby, Nick Glover and Rosamund Place would be very happy to hear from anyone willing to help us run this community event on the Green.

·Be the envy of Central Deanery as you pick up your steward's vest in a fetching pale blue.

·Exert authority checking tickets.

·Wander around the audience making them feel welcome and glad they turned up.

·Is it your opportunity to show off your hot signature vegetarian dish for 5?

·Could you serve drinks in the interval?

·No need to ride a bike – leave that to the thespis!

·The eye of man hath not heard, the ear of man hath not seen, man's hand is not able to taste, his tongue to conceive, nor his heart to report, what my dream was.....'

(Act 4 Scene 1, Bottom misquoting the Bible)

Thank you in advance! It's going to be a laugh!

Please tell others of this event, bring friends and a picnic!
