Thought for Today

Life requires a lot of patience and trust. The parable of the growing seed teaches us that the kingdom of God grows slowly. Once the farmer plants the seed, he can only wait for nature to do its work. He goes about his days without knowing what's happening underground.

Similarly, Jesus' followers are called to wait patiently and trust, even when they can't see any progress. Jesus assures us that "the earth is bearing fruit on its own." God's work is unfolding in the world, slowly but surely. When the time is right, the harvest will come quickly and decisively. God is creating a new reality in this age and the age to come. This parable offers a lot of encouragement.

The second parable in the Gospel reading shows us what the new reality of God's kingdom might look like. The people of the kingdom may seem small and weak, but they can trust that God is steadily growing them into a large, welcoming community. The image of birds nesting in the tree represents hospitality, nurture, protection, creativity, and freedom. The kingdom is a place where everyone is invited to flourish, both individually and together. This parable is also very encouraging!

The All Saints PCC meets on Wednesday, 26th June at 7.15 pm in the Upper Room.

The next Film Night, on Friday 28th June, will show the DVD of Lost in Translation. Sofia Coppola, the American daughter of famous movie directors, wanted to write and direct this story after spending time in Tokyo in her youth. The film was low budget and she had to take a risk making it because actor Bill Murray would not commit until after shooting was underway. It was a box office success and eventually won awards, but it has been criticised for making fun of Japanese people. It describes the cultural differences between Japan and the USA by imagining two people, who are accommodated in the same hotel, both suffering from jet lag and both having to fill in some time in this huge and very foreign, but very modern city. They slowly get to know each other but are not tempted to consummate the relationship until too late. Both Ruth Birnie and I recall difficulties in understanding it first time around. A little homework on Safari or google might make it easier. It is easy to approach this film as a comparison of what can be difficulties in the early years of a marriage to that of later mid-life crises, but in fact it is an excellent “Rom Com”, as well as a study of modern life just before the social media era took over.

The date is June 28, the time is 6.30pm for those bringing in their own supper, and the film will be shown by Vic and Pat, for whom we are extremely grateful, at 7.30pm. There will be a short break half way through and we should discuss the moral issues at the end. Valerie Farthing

Leavers Party 2024 In just under a month we will be hosting our second Leavers Party for children leaving first school. Last year we welcomed over 30 children from 3 schools for an after-school event with pizza, games, crafts and more. This year we hope even more children will come and experience All Saints as a fun, welcoming place. To make that possible, we need volunteers! Please would you consider giving an afternoon of your time to help out?

When? Thursday 11 July, 1pm-5pm.

What? We need volunteers to supervise each of the following areas: snack table, registration/help desk, craft area, prayer space, bouncy house, active games, general oversight. We are also looking for someone who can be our first-aid provider.

Who? All help is very much appreciated! All we ask is that you are willing to help out and agree to the All Saints safeguarding policy.

Events like this are an amazing opportunity to connect with our local community and share the love of God. If you are able to volunteer, please could you get in touch with Miriam or Dana as soon as possible? Thank you.

Semitones are holding a free afternoon concert Sunday 14th July 2024 at 3.30pm in Church. See poster at the end of the newsletter.

The Quaker Meeting House, West Avenue, is holding the Big Brew 2024 on Thursday 18th July 10.00 – 1.00pm, everyone welcome.

Keep the date free: following the success last year we're planning another guided walk around the area, so make sure your diary is clear for Sunday afternoon on 21st July! More details to follow.
